

'One of the Ugliest and most Beautiful of Places' Photography and Images of the English North

Image by permission of Leeds City Museum and Hackelbury Retrospective, © Marc Riboud/Courtesy HackelBury Fine Art, London

Saturday 14 February 2009
Thoresby Room
Leeds City Museum

Fee £20
(£15 for students)

To make a booking please contact:
Val Walker at the Institute of Northern Studies

Telephone: 0113 812 3980

Email: V.Walker@leedsmet.ac.uk

Or by post at

Institute of Northern Studies
Office 905, F Building
Leeds Metropolitan University
Calverley Street, Civic Quarter
Leeds LS1 3HE

- 9.30                    Registration and coffee
- 10.00                    Introduction, Professor Dave Russell, Institute of Northern Studies, Leeds Metropolitan University
- 10-15-11.15           'New Northern Photography. Work from Redeye, the Photography Network', Paul Herrmann, Director of Redeye
- 11.15-11.30           Coffee
- 11.30-12.30           'Constructing "Old Whitby": Frank Meadow Sutcliffe, tourism, heritage and regeneration in a fishing port and seaside resort', Professor John Walton, Institute of Northern Studies, Leeds Metropolitan University
- 12.30-1.30            Lunch (delegates own arrangements)
- 1.30-2.30             'Picture Post and the Image of the North' Dr Stewart Rawsley, School of Cultural Studies, Leeds Metropolitan University
- 2.30-3.30             'Bill Brandt in Yorkshire: two photographs from the Dark North', Dr Ian Walker, Newport School of Art, Media and Design, University of Wales
- 3.30-3.45             Tea
- 3.45-4.45             'Amber Collective: a Forty Year Documentary Engagement', Amber Collective