

LEEDS SOCIAL VALUE CHARTER

Our vision is for Leeds to be a healthy, fair, compassionate and caring city where everyone benefits from the city's economic growth. The success of Leeds is dependent on private, public and third sector partners that are individually enterprising and thriving, but who also work together, alongside active citizens and communities for their mutual benefit and for the good of the city.

We believe that all sectors and partners, and Leeds' many and diverse communities, make important contributions to the success of the city, but real added value and benefit will be achieved and we will get the greatest possible social return from investment by promoting social responsibility, building social capital and delivering social value.

▼ This Charter sets out the guiding principles that will help us achieve our social value ambitions in Leeds. ▼

The Leeds Approach

Our Guiding Principles:

- ▲ Aim to add value and deliver long-term social, economic and environmental benefits in all that we do
- ▲ Work in partnership with others to ensure that we achieve the best outcomes for Leeds and everyone benefits from the success of the city
- ▲ Create employment and training opportunities for people in Leeds and be a good employer
- ▲ Grow and strengthen the local economy by investing the Leeds pound in Leeds
- ▲ Be sustainable, fair and ethical in all that we do
- ▲ Recognise the added value that community led organisations bring to the city

We believe that by operating in line with these principles Leeds can:

- ▲ Become the Best city in the UK – being fair, open and welcoming, with an economy that is both prosperous and sustainable, supporting all our communities to be successful
- ▲ Become a city of civic enterprise, with the Council being more enterprising and business, the third sector and other partners being more civic minded
- ▲ Become a city where all our citizens, in all their diversity, are valued, active and involved and are helping shape the city to meet our current and future needs

Why the Charter has been launched

The Charter aims to set out in one brief statement the city partners' commitment to promote social responsibility and social value and to make the maximum impact in Leeds with the Leeds pound. The intention is that the Charter will serve as the expression of a shared commitment to our ambitions. It will provide a benchmark for practice, while giving organisations and their staff strategic and operational encouragement to take the actions necessary to deliver the Leeds that we all want.

The concept of a Leeds Charter to promote Social Value and Social Responsibility follows key developments and emerged from discussions in a range of forums between partners in Leeds, including:

- the Public Services (Social Value) Act: which charges all public sector agencies, to consider early in their commissioning arrangements, requirements relating to social and environmental, as well as economic value in their tendering processes; this raised the issue more widely and challenged partners to look at Social Value beyond the commissioning process
- the Commission on the Future of Local Government, led by Leeds City Council: which proposed the concept of Civic Enterprise, "a new leadership style for local government where councils become more enterprising, businesses and other partners become more civic, and citizens become more engaged"
- the development of the Third Sector Ambition Statement for Leeds and its supporting Implementation Plan, which identifies a number of actions which fall under the headings of promoting Social Responsibility and Social Value.
- Interest from private sector partners in making real their Corporate Social Responsibility and Community Investment commitments and making mutually beneficial partnerships with communities and the third sector
- the work of the Social Value in Health and Social Care task group

We expect the Charter to support the delivery of the City ambitions. Some of these are set out in key strategies, including: Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy, Leeds City Region Strategic Economic Plan, Leeds Growth Strategy, Children and Young People's Plan, Best Start Plan, Safer Leeds Plan and the Best Council Plan and much more.

We hope the Charter will inspire and encourage more colleagues from all sectors, involved in the widest range of activities to explore how they can become more socially responsible and what positive added social value they can make as they go about their business, whatever it is.

We believe that putting the Charter principles into practice will help to make Leeds a caring and compassionate City with less inequality and more opportunities for everyone: a safe place, with healthy individuals, thriving communities, successful businesses and a great environment ... the Best City in the UK!

Supporting partners to put the Charter into practice:

There is no rule book, but there are plenty of ideas and people around in Leeds and many other places who can inspire, advise and support. Set out over the next couple of pages are some of the ways that the Charter can be put into practice. This is not a set of rules, it is only intended to inspire and encourage. More ideas, case studies and toolkits can be found at www.doinggoodleeds.org.uk/socialvaluecharter.html As knowledge and ideas develop there will be more information, with additional links to other sites. We hope that you will share your experience too. A cross sector Implementation Group has been established to promote the Charter, share ideas and develop tools for implementation.
