The Leeds Library At Home Service is a free service offered to anyone who is unable to visit their local library and who does not have anyone who can visit on their behalf. You would be eligible for the service if:

- ill-health
- disability
- age
- frailty

prevented you from visiting the library.

If your role as a carer means that you are unable to visit your local library, then you may also be eligible for the service.

Free Home Delivery

With visits on a three-weekly basis, borrowers can receive:

- Books and information from Leeds Library and Information Service
- Large print books
- Talking books
- Music CDs and DVDs
- Free reservations for any item from any Leeds Library
- Regular member newsletters
- Books in community languages
- Book rests, magnifiers and reading aids

Get involved!

Would you like to make a real difference and help people living in your community? The Leeds Library At Home Service recruits volunteers who take books and other library items to customers.

As a volunteer you would:

- Choose books for customers
- Deliver books to customers
- Return books and other items to nearby library branches
- Keep records of your visits

Travel expenses are paid.

You would need to commit 2-3 hours once every three weeks to the Leeds Library At Home Service.
