LINEHAM FARM WEEKEND, NEAR LEEDS, WEST YORKSHIRE 6.00pm Friday 6th to 1.00pm Sunday 8th June 2008

Lineham Farm is situated north of Leeds in peaceful countryside and provides comfortable shared accommodation in a renovated 17th century farm complex with its own woodlands, wetland and surrounding farm land. The accommodation is very comfortable but some rooms include bunk-beds and you may be asked to share. You will need your own bedding/sleeping bags. Please play your part in keeping the facilities clean and tidy. Children are welcome if coming with an adult. Please do not bring dogs. There is ample on-site parking.

Indoors and outside in the surrounding woodlands, the sessions will cover a range of woodland topics led by The Leeds City Council Forestry team and staff from SWA; including:

- Management planning for small woodlands
- Individual tree hazard assessments
- The tree as an eco-system
- Woodland ecological surveys
- Assessing timber volumes (mensuration)
- Have you got bats in your wood?
- Making the most of the England Woodland Grant Scheme

Charges: Per person Standard Rate, Leeds City Council and Forestry Commission Conservancy arrangement: £60 for 2 nights residential, self-catering or £30 non-residential (children half rate)

Places are limited so please use the booking form below to reserve your place.

We are grateful to the Forestry Commission, Yorkshire and the Humber Conservancy for its continued sponsorship of this event.
