

Current Journals and Newspapers at Leeds Central Library

This directory contains information about the journals and newspapers currently taken at the Central Library, as of August 2012.

The directory is arranged alphabetically by title and there is also a subject index.

Each record shows:

- the department which holds the current issue
- the frequency of publication
- the extent of any holdings of back issues
- a short description of the publication
- its website
- if its website allows free access to articles from back issues
- if the publication and / or its website carries job adverts
- if the publication is indexed in the Art Index or available in UK Newsstand (see below):

Online Resources

Leeds Library and Information Service subscribes to a number of online resources, which are available to Library members at <http://www.leeds.gov.uk/onlineresources>

Some of these allow access to an index of art journals and to newspaper articles in full text:

Art Index

<http://www.leeds.gov.uk/onlineresources>

Provides comprehensive indexing for leading international art publications, including journals, yearbooks, and museum bulletins.

The areas of art covered include: painting, sculpture, photography, advertising, archaeology, decorative arts, crafts, pottery, folk art, graphic arts, fashion, textiles, interior design, industrial design, television, video, film, museum studies, architecture, art history and art theory.

There is coverage of contemporary art around the world, Canadian, Latin American, and Asian arts, new artists, exhibition reviews, non-western art, and feminist art criticism.

If a journal which the Central Library holds is indexed in Art Index this is indicated in its record.

UKNewsstand

<http://www.leeds.gov.uk/onlineresources>

UK Newsstand allows you to search for articles in full text across a wide range of national and regional newspapers.

It includes the most important national news publications such as The Guardian, FT, and The Times, key regional newspapers such as The Yorkshire Post, and the Liverpool Echo, and the most widely read and influential news magazines such as The Economist, New Statesman, and The Spectator.

If a newspaper which the Central Library holds is included in UK Newsstand this is indicated in its record.

The Times Digital Archive

<http://www.leeds.gov.uk/onlineresources>

'As the "world's newspaper of record," The Times of London has covered all major international events from the French Revolution to the War in Iraq. The Times Digital Archive, 1785–2006 makes 221 years of this highly regarded resource available for students and researchers of 19th-, 20th-, and early 21st-century history, literature, culture, business, art and architecture, and more. Every complete page of every issue is full-text searchable - every headline, article, editorial, announcement, image and advertisement.'

Also available:

Leeds Local Indexes

<http://www.leedslocalindex.net>

Leeds Local Indexes consists of indexes to newspaper and journal cuttings, indexes to census material for the area and resources such as the indexes to the Quaker and Non-Conformist Registers. This database contains over 250,000 records.

Journals to which we no longer subscribe:

Some Central departments hold collections of journals to which we no longer subscribe or which have ceased publication. These are not listed here but holdings are included in departmental catalogues or the online catalogue at <http://prism.talis.com/leeds/>

Please check availability with the department concerned before making any special journeys:

Yorkshire Post

Department	Frequency	Holdings	UK Newsstand*	Microfilm
Information Centre	Daily	2 months in paper.	Full text coverage Oct 1, 2003 – to date.	1866 to date held in Local & Family History
*UK Newsstand available to Library members at http://www.leeds.gov.uk/onlineresources Regional daily newspaper. The paper was founded in 1754, as the Leeds Intelligencer, making it one of Britain's first daily newspapers. Like The Scotsman, it has the look and feel of a national broadsheet, rather than a local news carrier. Its focus on international and national news gives it a wider focus than that usually associated with a provincial newspaper; editions are also available daily in central London. It is generally considered to be on the right of the political spectrum, supporting the Conservative Party (indeed its owners used to be known as Yorkshire Conservative Newspapers Limited until the 1960s) and bitterly opposing the ban on hunting.
