Date to Comply by:

This column indicates the date by which the requirements of the notice should be complied with, if applicable. Certain types of notices will not display a Date to Comply by, as this is determined by law. The date for other notice types, will depend upon its individual requirements. A notice may have many requirements, each with a different date for compliance. You should refer to the notice for further details. If an appeal is lodged, then any dates by which the notice should be complied with, will be extended until the appeal is determined.
